03 · NEXT STEPS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Protect acquisition, and make it pay twice

Returning revenue by acquisition date (labels: share from recent acquisitions)

New customers also feed returning revenue: 25% of it in Sep 2026, up from 7–13% in Oct 2025 to Mar 2026

New customers by channel, Sep 2026 (new revenue: $100,053)

Channel	Type	Cost (assumed)	Customers	Revenue	Share
Search	Paid	1 · Highest	805	$69.2k	69.2%
Facebook	Paid	2 · High	65	$5.9k	5.9%
Organic	Free	3 · Medium	168	$16.4k	16.4%
Display	Paid	4 · Low	43	$3.8k	3.8%
Email	Paid	5 · Lowest	58	$4.7k	4.7%

Facebook: 2nd-highest cost, 5.9% of new revenue (cost ranks assumed)

1 · Improve repeat among newly acquired customers

Support recent buyers with tailored recommendations, then a 2nd-order offer at day 30–60.

Primary: lower new-customer 90-day churn (95.8%)

Secondary: returning share, recent-acquisition part

2 · Shift part of paid spend to repeat efforts

Get cost by channel; move part of the Facebook and Display budget (~10% of new revenue) to repeat efforts.

Primary: lower new-customer 90-day churn (95.8%)

Secondary: lower CAC, steady new-customer revenue
